

Enhancing the Teaching of Literacy through Imagination

*“Good thinking requires good analytical skills, but it also depends on Imagination” - Jane Healy, Endangered Minds (1990)

Professional In-Service Training

A one-day workshop providing Primary school teachers with the opportunity to experience and explore imagination through the arts, poetry, recitation, myths, legends and water colour painting. The program will consist of lectures, discussion and artistic experience.

DISCUSSIONS WILL INCLUDE:

- Engaging children’s attention through the art of narration
- How to enliven your practice of teaching
- How to nourish the child’s feeling life through imagination
- What are the pathways to develop creative thinking.

A day filled with inspiration and nourishment for teachers.

Creatively using imagination to write the Letter G

DATES 13th August or 20th August 08

COST $150 for the day

Lunch will be provided

TIME 9:00—3:00pm

VENUE
Michael Centre, 37A Wellington Park
Drive Warranwood 3134

ENQUIRIES & BOOKINGS

Sandra Paulka 03 9876 5199 seminar@mrss.com.au

Melbourne Rudolf Steiner Teacher Training Seminar